MEN'S RETREAT

GET REEL

There are a lot of thoughts that come to mind when it comes to fishing. For many, it is the opportunity to take a break and enjoy some low impact leisure. For others, it is the chance to take the boat and family out on the lake for a day. Others still think of the emotional side of the day—starting with the anticipation of the hunt to the agony of defeat (and occasionally sometimes the thrill of victory). There are those lucky few who get to consider fishing a livelihood, but for most of us, it is still a pastime that we look forward to enjoying on occasion.

The reality is that most of us can't live in our leisure time. We can enjoy it and look forward to it, but we have day-to-day responsibilities that need to be addressed. Too many Christians want to be on vacation when we are in the middle of the war. While we enjoy rest in the Lord, we need to keep focused and follow Paul's admonition to, "Watch ye, stand fast in the faith, quit you like men, be strong" as 1 Corinthians 16:13 states.
